

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR ESSAY

In order to submit your essay you must fill the submission form on the competition page by 11pm UK time on Submission Deadline: 3 April 2024. If having trouble, email enquiries@mindsunderground.com with the details requested on the submission form & your attached essay.

Young Minds Prize (14 & Under)

- The Young Minds prize is open to students aged 14 or younger on the date of the submission deadline. 1 winner will be announced. Prize: a £30 voucher to use on either U2 Tuition (www.u2tuition.com) or Minds Underground (www.mindsunderground.com)
- Word Count: Junior essays must be up to 1000 words (no lower limit), no referencing required unless desired.

Senior Prizes

- The Senior Minds prizes are aimed at students in Year 12 (penultimate year of school, usually 16 or 17 years old) though we welcome submissions from ambitious younger entrants in Year 10 and 11, as well as students re-applying to university in Year 13
- There will be one Senior winner for each subject category. Each winner will receive a £30 voucher to use on either U2 Tuition (www.u2tuition.com) or Minds Underground (www.mindsunderground.com) as well as a customised Resource Pack in their university application subject if applicable
- Open to UK and international students
- Essays must be written in English
- Students may submit 1 entry per subject category. Students are permitted to enter more than one subject competition
- Submit essays as PDF or Microsoft Word files
- References must be in Harvard Referencing Style and included in the word count. A bibliography will not be included in the word count
- Unless undertaking the Engineering Challenge or the British Psychology Olympiad competition (see guidelines for these on the specific competition page), Senior essays must be 1000 - 1500 words in length (citations are included. Ensure you include a bibliography (not included in the word count)).
- For any queries not answered here, please contact enquiries@mindsunderground.com
- Winners & highly commended entrants will be notified by email. We will notify all entrants of results
